

Put people before politics. This is another attempt by the conventional media outlets to try and block a great service from the people. If I wanted to listen to commercials for 50 minutes before I got my traffic I would listen to AM radio. I pay for my XM and I want my traffic as soon as I tune in.